

Simple Study:

Psalm 9:1-2 – Read the passage and answer the following questions:

The psalmist uses the word will several times. Will is a word of intention. What is it the psalmist says he will do? List the phrases here:

Are these intentions you can do? Ponder if you are ready to change. If so, make the list again, but place your name everywhere there is an I.

Write the changes you believe you would see in your life if you chose to do these “I will’s”?

Complete the exercise by writing a prayer of commitment to God here:

©Valerie Rumfelt