

Simple Study - Psalm 119: 97-104

What does the author proclaim at the very beginning?

How does the author respond to God's law? He meditates on it.

How would one meditate all day long on God's law?

The author makes the claim that meditation on God's word had accomplished a few, rather significant things in his life. List the 3 here.

In response to all this the writer declares an intention he showed in his life. What is it? (vs. 101 & 102)

Why did he do this? (vs. 101)

Who taught the author? (vs. 102)

What food item did the author use to describe his view of scripture?

As the author gained understanding from God's word, what was the result? (vs.104)
